OBJECTIVE

I am a curious person who loves beautiful, smooth things and wants to bring fantasy things to the web. I have almost 1 year of Front-end development experience using React. I have a good understanding of CSS, JavaScript and React, besides I have a good working attitude, always asking questions and finding answers and solutions to them. With a passion for both personal development and software development, I always want to build better things.

EDUCATION

FPT University

Aug 2022 - Sep 2026

Major: Software Engineer

I'm a first-year student at FPT University Ha Noi

WORK EXPERIENCE

Missing Corner

Oct 2021 - Aug 2022

Front-end Developer

- Worked with the senior developer to create a new website from a scratch.
- Implement features and maintenance on the ongoing project of the customer.
- Participate in meetings and report the working process, communicate with the senior developer to come up with the solution and review the code.

SKILLS

Front-end Tech

- HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript/TypeScript, ReactJs/React Native

INTERESTS

I like pretty much everything but for most of my spare time I just code and build something cool with CSS and Javascript, or I'll learn new technology, read tech blogs and optimize side projects. Besides, if I still have time in the day, I'll play video games and read books.
